PROHIBITION IN INDIANA

War Savings Stamps

Elaborate plans have been made for the final demonstration of the war savings stamps campaign tonight. There will be one grand entertainment at the junction of Brougher and Main streets, with lots of music by the Tonopah Military band, and singing by a large chorus which has been gotten together by H. W. Albert, and the regular volunteer entertainers will add their services for the occasion. The council of defense reports that pledge cards are coming in very rapidly. It now looks like Nye county will secure its enormous quota of $220,000. Several of the outside districts, including Manhattan and Round Mountain, will apparently have large over-subscriptions, and it only remains for Tonopah to do her patriotic duty and bring the entire county up to the standard we have maintained since the war started. Chairman Mushett estimates the total sold up to last night at $115,000. The two booths on each side of Main street and Brougher avenue will be presided over by two young lady volunteers from the postoffice staff and two ladies of the Red Cross. There will be a committee composed of a number of Red Cross workers and men actively soliciting and taking care of the pledge cards and explaining the method of filling them out. From the present outlook there is every probability that Nye county will have an unusually large proportionate membership in the Limit Club, which is composed of those who subscribe for or pledge themselves to purchase $1000 worth of stamps before the end of the year. This afternoon the names of Charles G. Richards, Mrs. Charles G. Richards and Mrs. Margaret Bertrand were added to the Limit Club. GET IN THE GAME! BUY STAMPS! WIN THE WAR.

Previous reports of the destruction of the Dwinsk, a ship under American charter, said she was sunk June 18, 700 miles off the Delaware Capes.

AFFECTING SCENES AT STATION
WHEN BOYS LEAVE FOR ARIZONA

"Cut out that sob stuff and play 'Everybody's Doing It,' and if you don't know that, play 'Send Me Away With a Smile,'" yelled Lawrence Darrough, a volunteer recruit from the Smoky valley this morning as he and eight others, were about to entrain for the University of Arizona at Tucson to take up mechanical training for the army. The band was playing "Tenting Tonight," but quickly switched in deference to the wishes of the boys. The crowd cheered and the train was off to the usual screeching of mine sirens and after one of the most affecting scenes witnessed at this milestone in the military lives of so many Tonopah boys.

While every one of the boys were included in the forthcoming draft they all left as volunteers in answer to the call for men to take the special course of training. In fact there was such eagerness expressed to be included in the list that two boys from Smoky valley phoned in yesterday that they were coming and begging L. E. Glass, the exemption board clerk, to keep places for them. The departure was the most pathetic of any since the first batch of recruits went away and it required quite a struggle for many of the spectators to restrain their pent up feelings when they saw wives, mothers and sisters clinging fondly to the boys going out in defense of their homes. The parade formed up town at the civic flagstaff and, marching to stirring strains evoked by the Musicians' Union band and the Tonopah Drum corps, the parade took up the familiar line leading to the railroad station. At the head were the flags of the allies led by the Women's Relief Corps and Ed Harmer, of the Grand Army, bearing the Stars and Stripes. Then came the Red Cross workers

ALLIES ARE SKEPTICAL
ABOUT THE UPRISING
SENT OUT BY BERLIN

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 28.—According to unconfirmed reports the Bolshevik government at Moscow has been overthrown, says a dispatch from Copenhagen. Moscow, the report adds, has been captured by General Korniloff, supported by German troops. Advices from the same sources assert that Grand Duke Nicholas has been proclaimed emperor.

Italy Marks Time
Driving Austrians

(By Associated Press.)
There are yet no outward indications of when or where the German command will launch the next strokes against the allied lines. The fighting lull on the western front continues with only raids and local attacks, while on the Italian front, the Austrians, reeling from the shock of the repulse on the Piave, are seemingly content to allow the Italians to have the initiative.

It is two weeks since the German crown prince ceased his ineffectual efforts to reach Compiègne, and the breathing space which has been longer than ever before the offensive across the Aisne and Noyon-Montdidier front, has been sufficient to permit the Germans to prepare fully for a renewal of that offensive. The allied capitals look for another enemy blow soon, which military observers believe will come on the front between Montdidier and Ypres.

General Kaledines is said to have co-operated with Korniloff in the capture of Moscow. Defeat of the Bolshevik is said to have been made possible by the victories of the Czechs-Slovak forces and treachery of the Red Guards. Several detachments of the guard are said to have murdered their officers and then surrendered.

The Exchange Telegraph company publishes a message containing reports of the Bolshevik overthrow, accompanied with details "with reserve" and points out that the information emanates mainly from German sources, and should be received with caution.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 28.—Nikolai Lenin, premier, and Leon Trotsky, minister of war, are said to have fled to the Murman coast.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 28.—That the Bolshevik in Siberia could be overthrown easily but for the support of armed prisoners released by them is the contention of the Harbin correspondent of the Daily Mail. In a dispatch he says that out of 20,000 prisoners fighting with the Bolshevik in Transbaikalia, 4000 are Mgyars, the chief source of the Bolshevik strength. Two or three allied divisions, says the correspondent, could suppress all opposition in Siberia.
